Re-Changes to school day from September 2018

Dear parent/carer

This letter is to notify you that Graham School is consulting on an amendment to the school day starting from 3 September 2018.

This is to allow us to move to a split lunchtime to shorten the length of queues the students experience and to allow them longer to enjoy their meal. We believe it will also help with the transition from primary school as it will bring the meal time earlier in the day for the year 7s in school, which will mimic their primary school timings more closely.

The proposal for the new school day is;

Years 7 and 8

8.40	Arrive
9.10	Lesson 1
10.10	Lesson 2
11.10	Break
11.30	Lesson 3
12.30	Lunch
13.00	Lesson 4
14.00	Lesson 5
15.00	School ends

Years 9, 10 and 11

8.40	Arrive
9.10	Lesson 1
10.10	Lesson 2
11.10	Break
11.30	Lesson 3
12.30	Lesson 4
13.30	Lunch
14.00	Lesson 5
15.00	School ends

We have consulted with North Yorkshire County Council and the local bus companies who provide the transportation for the school and the current services will continue as they are, with the revised timings.

There will be a parental meeting held at the school on 5 June at 5.00pm which you are welcome to attend if you wish to discuss these proposals further.

Kind regards

Paul Brockwell
